

Making a Complaint

Making a complaint is speaking up about something you do not like or you are not happy with

Making a complaint can be a good way of making things change for the better

What can I complain about?

You can use the Complaints Procedure to complain about services offered by New Directions.

Here are some examples:

Day Opportunities

Work

Find someone you trust to talk to.
Tell them what is bothering you.
You could talk to:

- Your key worker
- A team leader
- The deputy manager or manager
- A friend
- Other care staff
- Your advocate
- A family member

If you are still unhappy after talking to someone, you can go to Stage 1

Stage 1

You can telephone or use the form at the back of this leaflet to contact New Directions.
Phone number 01788 573318

A specially trained person will contact you

They will look into your complaint

They will tell you how long it will take

You will get a written report if you want one, or we can talk to you

You will also be told of any changes that are going to be made

If you are still unhappy after getting the report you can go to Stage 2

Stage 2

The Chief Executive will look at your complaint and will let you know what we will do to put things right

Stage 3

The Review Panel

The Review Panel is made up of 3 people:

- The Chairperson and 2 Trustees
- The Review Panel looks at the complaint again
- They will find out if things need to change.

Telling us what you think

If you have told someone about your complaint and they could not help you or things have not got any better use the form on the next page

It is OK to complain

If you are unhappy with something it is OK to say so

We need to know what is wrong with a service before we can try to make it better
